1. Why were the soldiers happy to see the village?

In the story of "Stone Soup," the soldiers were happy to see the village because they were looking for a place to rest and find some food. They were tired and hungry from their journey, and they hoped the villagers would be kind and share a meal with them.

2. Which is your favourite game/sports? Why?

Soccer is a favourite because it's a fun way to stay active and work as a team. You get to run around, kick the ball, and score goals. Plus, it's a game that people all over the world play, so you can make new friends and have fun wherever you go!

3. Where did the twenty froggies go to school?

The twenty froggies went to "the Frog School." In the classic children's rhyme, they go to school in a pond, where they learn and play together. It's a fun way to imagine frogs having their own special school.

4. How many friends did the Little Red Hen have? Name them.

The story revolves around the Red Hen's efforts to bake bread and her interactions with her neighbours, who are too lazy to help her. They are.

- 1. The Little Red Hen herself
