SECTION B: WRITING (4)

III. Choose any 'ONE' story and write.

a. The Magic Seed      b) The Magic Pencil      c) The Little Cloud

a. Lily, a curious little girl, finds a sparkling seed in her garden and plants it. After watering it every day, the seed grows into a magical flower with rainbow-colored petals. The flower speaks to Lily, offering her one wish. Lily wishes for everyone in her village to have enough food and happiness. The flower grants her wish, and the village becomes filled with food and joy. From then on, the magical flower reminds everyone that kindness and wishes can make the world a better place.

b) The Magic Pencil

In the story, a young girl named Elena is unhappy because she doesn't have many things. One day, she finds a magic pencil that can bring anything she draws to life. Elena starts drawing things like a big house, tasty food, and toys. But soon, she realizes that having everything she wants isn't as important as helping others. Elena decides to use the magic pencil to draw things for people in need, like food for the hungry and toys for children who don't have any. In the end, she learns that kindness and sharing are the most important things of all.

c) The Little Cloud

In the story, a small cloud floats through the sky, feeling curious about the world below. As it drifts along, it sees different shapes in the clouds, like animals and objects. The little cloud enjoys changing its shape to match what it sees, becoming a lion, a ship, and even a butterfly. Eventually, the little cloud starts to feel sad because it doesn't know where it's going or what it's supposed to do. But then, it begins to rain, helping the plants and flowers grow. The little cloud realizes that it has an important job and feels happy, knowing it's making the world a better place.
