SARALA BIRLA GROUP OF SCHOOLS

BOYS' SR. SECONDARY RESIDENTIAL PUBLIC SCHOOL

The Tides recede, but leaves behind bright sea shells on the sand,
The Sun goes down but the gentle warmth still lingers on the land.
The Music stops but yet it echoes on, in sweet refrains,
For every joy that passes something beautiful remains.

We know it's been a while since you've moved on in life;
We know it's been a while since you have cherished your school life;
We know it's been a while since you have met those strangers, who turned friends;
We know it's time for you to relive it all over again.
