

B.K. BIRLA CENTRE FOR EDUCATION

SARALA BIRLA GROUP OF SCHOOLS
A CBSE DAY-CUM-BOYS' RESIDENTIAL SCHOOL

PERIODIC TEST-I-SET-1 (2026-27) SCIENCE

Class: V

Date: 13/06/'26

Admission no:

Time: 1 hour

Max Marks: 25

Roll no:

Marking Scheme

1. (b) iodine
 2. (d) Pot
 3. (d) Dandelion
 4. (a) Carrot
 5. (d) Egg
 6. A disease is a condition that affects the normal functioning of the body.
Example: Cold / Malaria
 7. A stem cutting is planted in soil, and it develops roots and grows into a new plant.
Example: Rose plant.
 8. Coconut
Lotus
 9. Importance of water and roughage in diet:
 - Water helps in digestion, absorption of nutrients, and removal of waste.
 - Roughage helps in easy movement of food in the intestine and prevents constipation.
 10. Seed dispersal is the spreading of seeds away from the parent plant.
Ways:
 - By wind
 - By water
 11. Kharif crops:
 - Grown in rainy season
 - Sown in June–July
 - Example: Rice, maize
- Rabi crops:
- Grown in winter season

- Sown in October–November
- Example: Wheat, gram

12. Vaccination is the process of giving a vaccine to protect the body from diseases.

It is important because it helps prevent serious diseases and keeps us healthy.

13. Communicable diseases are diseases that spread from one person to another.

Examples:

Common cold

Tuberculosis