Section A: Reading Skills (10 marks)

I. Read the passage carefully then answer the question:

Aman was a student of Class Five who always followed rules in school. He reached school on time every day and completed his work neatly. Aman believed that discipline helps students become successful. His class teacher, Mrs. Rina Verma, often reminded the children to speak the truth and be honest.

One day, during games period, Aman saw a small water bottle lying near the playground. The bottle was clean and had a name written on it. Aman felt curious, but he knew the bottle was not his. He remembered his teacher's words about honesty and responsibility.

Aman picked up the bottle and took it to Mrs. Verma. He told her that he had found the bottle near the playground. Mrs. Verma praised Aman for being honest and disciplined.

Soon, a boy named Kunal came to the class looking upset. He said that he had lost his water bottle during his games period. Mrs. Verma returned the bottle to Kunal, and Kunal thanked Aman happily.

Mrs. Verma told the class that honesty makes us trustworthy and discipline makes us strong. Aman felt proud because he had done the right thing.
