10. Case Study

Today we understand it as “India”, the modern nation-state. When the term was used in the thirteenth century by Minhaj-i-Siraj, a chronicler who wrote in Persian, he meant the areas of Punjab, Haryana and the lands between the Ganga and Yamuna. He used the term in a political sense for lands that were a part of the dominions of the Delhi Sultan. On occasion authors revised their chronicles at different times. The 14 th century chronicler Ziyauddin Barani wrote his chronicles first in a356 and another version two years later.
