THE MAGICAL SKILL

In a small town, there was a library filled with books of all kinds. Children loved to visit the library after school. Among them was a girl named Anu, who not only enjoyed but also loved reading. Every time she opened a book to read, she felt like she was entering a whole new world and get lost in reading the book.

One day, Anu found an old book hidden in a corner. It was covered with dust and looked forgotten. She became curious and took it home and began to read. The story was about a brave soldier who went on adventures to save his kingdom. Anu was captivated! She read late into the night, imagining herself as that brave soldier.

From that day on, Anu increased her visits to the library, and started visiting it more often than before, discovering new stories and making friends with other readers of her age. She realised that reading not only entertained her but also helped her learn about different cultures and ideas by interacting with people around her.
